In the heart of the village of Schengen, just a short walk from the Moselle River, your Unicorn Real Estate agency is exclusively offering this two-family home, which reveals unexpected spaciousness behind its unassuming facade.

Originally built in the 1930s, the property underwent a complete renovation between 1996 and 2002. Today, it combines the character of a historic home with a spacious interior layout spread across several levels.

From the moment you enter, the spaces surprise with their proportions. The living areas flow naturally from the living room to the dining room, while the large, fully equipped kitchen—designed as a true living space—easily accommodates a dining area. A covered balcony extends the living space and offers a pleasant outdoor area in the heart of the village.

The house features several spacious bedrooms. The upper bedrooms enjoy the unique charm of attic spaces and beautiful natural light, provided in particular by recently replaced skylights. Two bathrooms complete these living areas.

A remarkable vaulted stone cellar evokes the building's origins and lends the property a character rarely found in more contemporary structures.

A garage, laundry room, and ample storage space round out the property.

A unique, spacious home deeply rooted in its surroundings, located in the heart of Schengen and the Three Borders region, amidst one of the most iconic landscapes of the Luxembourg Moselle.
